TEN YEARS AFTER.

The enchanted city of La Plata celebrated yesterday its tenth anniversary, but the occasion was stripped of much of that kind of rejoicing which is usual in South America: there were no fireworks. After all there is really no reason to mark the 19th November 1882 with a white stone: it is a date of the most disastrous recollections, the city of La Plata having been one of the principal causes of the crisis of 1890-91.

According to the latest estimates, that unfortunate city represents an outlay of $260,000,000 currency: private house-property in 1887 was valued at $170,000,000, and the rest, we suppose was spent in public buildings, streets, boulevards etc. All this money did not come from the moon, nor was it simply the investment of private capital, honestly accumulated. After the most diligent research and study we come to the conclusion that it was obtained as follows:

	$ currency.
Private capital.....	30,000,000
Treasury disbursements	90,000,000
Banks	140,000,000
Total	260,000,000

Treasury disbursements over and above ordinary expenditure between the years 1880 and 1891 amounted to 171,000,000 dollars, as we see by the statement of debt of the Province, and it may be assumed that something more than half of this sum was spent in public buildings, sumptuous furniture from London, new streets and boulevards, and the like. The amount of money raised by private individuals through the Mortgage Bank can never be precisely ascertained, nor of the sums drawn out of the Provincial Bank in the form of discounts, by persons buying lots or building houses at La Plata. We know positively that the issue of the Mortgage Bank in Decembar 1882 was $19,800,000, and that in 1891 it amounted to $300,000,000, an increase of 280,000,000 dollars, one-fourth of which we believe was absorbed by La Plata speculators. This leaves 70,000,000$ still unaccounted for, which was probably taken out of the Provincial Bank either by the Government or persons recommended by them. It is, of course, only a surmise of ours, but the money must have come from somewhere. Suffice it to say that 260,000,000$ have been sunk in a city of no tangible value to the nation, and which if sold to-morrow by auction would not fetch 20,000,000$.

La Plata in a word represents a net loss of close upon £20,000,000 sterling. Had the Provincial Government fixed its residence at Moron or Mercedes this lavish waste of public money could have been avoided.

With respect to the present condition of La Plata the Review of yesterday has the following:—

"Our guide took us to the Cathedral in course of construction (there are two men at work upon it), and from its unfinished walls we viewed the desolate city; to our right was the house belonging to ex-Governor D'Amico, a large two storied building, gradually going to decay; to our left the less pretentious building belonging to ex-Governor Rocha, the founder of La Plata; in front, the Municipal palace, large enough to accomodate the Municipality of any first class European city; at present only about half a dozen rooms are occupied. The roof of the Bolsa is to be seen towering over the housetops, and the sight of it recalled to our mind the mad speculation in "Territoriales" that took place under its shelter in the days of boom. Stately government buildings surrounded us on all sides, buildings that would be a pride to any European city, all left to the hand of Time. The streets are vacant, and are mostly covered with grass, as there is no traffic to keep it down."

TAXES IN CAMP TOWNS.

President Saenz Peña will have to take prompt and summary measures with some of the municipal corporations of camp towns in this province, who are instituting a kind of brigandage in the collection of what they are pleased to call licenses for trade. The atrocities committed by the local authorities at Bolivar last month, with the tacit connivance of the superior officials, may be repeated at any moment in Mercedes, Luxan, Azul or other town, unless the Nat. Government publish a manifesto against such daring outrages.

The Provincial Law of Buenos Ayres distinctly lays down in Article 60 the following:—

"No rural municipality shall have a right to collect Patentes or levy trade-licenses for any business, shop or occupation in its jurisdiction."

Nevertheless the Municipality of Rauch has levied taxes of this description, and the shopkeepers, on appealing to Mr. Irigoyen, Finance Minister, have been told that the tax is illegal, and that it is advisable for them to sue the Municipal Councillors for loss and damages, besides the amount of tax collected. It is needless to say that such advice, however well-meant, is of little value to the plundered shopkeepers.

The trouble and expense of undertaking a lawsuit against the Municipality are sufficient to deter anyone, and thus the municipal tyrants go unpunished. Nor is there any barrier against the autocrats of Bolivar or Rauch: they laugh at the law.

Their next step may be to collect a Patente or trade-license from every shepherd who buys groceries, or transacts any business, in their town. Look at the attempt of the authorities at Mar del Plata to levy a Patente on all persons catching fish, not quite a year ago.

Pres. Pellegrini very promptly suppressed the last mentioned autocrats, and we hope Dr. Saenz Peña will act with like vigor in the present instance. The whole machinery of Government will fall into disrepute if the local authorities in our camp-towns are allowed to violate the law with impunity.

OUR LONDON LETTER.

UGANDA.

(From our own Correspondent.)

October 21.

By very much the leading topic of to-day is Lord Rosebery's reply to the deputation from the Anti-Slavery Society. It embraces the whole of the Uganda question; but Lord Rosebery's speech disclosed the difficulty of having to deal mainly with one element—the slave-trade; when behind this sentimental question were those of trade and the interests of a particular trading company as well as the political interests of the empire and the question of extending that empire, and also an unfortunate religious question exciting variously the sympathies of two great portions of the British people of different communions. Lord Rosebery made an excellent speech, but, like his great old chief, he is something of a Mr. Facing-all-ways, and although everything he said was in the highest degree sensible and seems to have pleased all parties, we get little information as to the policy to be adopted by the Government, but only grounds for suspicion that the cabinet is not agreed upon this particular question. Lord Rosebery spoke strongly enough in regard to the moral reponsibilities of the country in respect to the suppression of the slave-trade, but he was not so clear as to the methods to be adopted in East Africa. He had the advantage of having in the deputation the Rev. Mr. Waller, an old comrade of Livingstone in Africa, who, from his own experience and the reports of Captain Lugard and of Mr. Collins, a missionary who has been an eye-witness of what has occurred lately on the banks of the Victoria Nyanza, seemed to be in favour of the Mombasa railway being made at the expense of the Government. Mr. Waller knew, as we all know from the reports mentioned, that, if goods are to be conveyed to and fro between the lake and the coast, the slave-trade, at least to a limited extent, is necessary, as the Arabs who conduct the business can get no one else to do the work in an equatorial climate and at reasonable rates. The Mombasa railway would doubtless destroy the Arab trade to a certain extent. But its length as at present proposed is 700 miles, which would take it a long way short of Uganda; and, as to the cost, Mr. Waller and his friends estimate it at three millions sterling. Others say they would be very sorry to be the contractors for it at that price. And when it was made it would be chiefly for the benefit of the East African Company, who may have their own notions of suppressing the slave trade and of conferring on the niggers the blessings of christianity and civilization. If the British Government, in addition to funding the capital for the railway, is to assume the Protectorate of Uganda, and all the political and financial responsibilities of such a step it is quite clear as Lord Rosebery gave the deputation to understand that it was a question which only Parliament could decide. Meanwhile something can be done and will be done between this and the meeting of Parliament, and from what Lord Rosebery stated in regard to this country having put its hand to the plough and the impossibility of looking back, whatever is done will be in the interests of humanity and civilization with just a squint of the eye towards business. The whole question cannot be left to the management of a chartered trading company. On this point listen to the Daily News. It says:—

"We are told that Uganda had been redeemed by the Christian civilization of the East Africa Company, and will be injured by the withdrawal of that agency. Unhappily we have recent and irrefragable testimony of what Christian civilization has done for Uganda. It is furnished by the narrative of Mr. Collins, a Protestant missionary who has just returned from that country. Here are one or two choice extracts from Mr. Collins's narrative: "Just as the messenger left the fort we heard two guns fired, and a moment afterwards two other guns fired, and then a terrible volley, which told us that the engagement had begun. At this moment a large party of Catholics were seen rushing down the hill from the King's enclosure, evidently with the object of taking the fort; but Captain Lugard turned the Maxim gun on them, and they rushed helter-skelter among the bananas. Captain Williams also opened fire on another party with the other Maxim. When the Protestants heard the sharp rattle of the big guns they burst into rounds of cheering. . . . Captain Williams at once got his Maxim into position, and, seeing this, the King's party tried to escape from the island in their canoes; but no sooner were the boats filled than they were sunk one after another by the Maxim, and an immense number of the natives were drowned, going down in boat-loads.""

I think it is fair to note that from Mr. Collins' narrative it is clear that either the catholic niggers must have gone down in boatloads or the protestant niggers would have been massacred together with the company's officers. It is no use being too squeamish in these matters. All that is to be said seems to be that what was done by the English in India and North America, and the Spaniards in Mexico and Peru, cannot be repeated in these days, not simply because we are so moral, but because the news of our operations travels too quickly and we are not as Spain was in the 16th century. We have to render an account of our actions not only to parliaments and philanthropical associations but to foreign governments as strong as we are, who, if there is killing to be done would like to do it themselves in their own interests.

* * * *

The anti-papacy meeting got up by Mr Beaufoy Moore and the ultra-protestant opponents of our new Lord Mayor was a complete fiasco. None of the speakers could make themselves heard, and there was a narrow escape of a big shindy. Lord Mayor Knill's show is not to include an old fashioned procession on the Thames as was reported. He wisely leaves that foolish expense to his successors.

* * * *

The Lambeth woman poisoner, Thomas Neill Cream, of whose crimes you must be well posted in if you have a fancy for horrors of the kind, now growing stale, was found guilty to-day and sentenced to death by Mr. Justice Hawkins.

* * * *

The papers give the following account of the World's Fair:—

"After months of ceaseless activity and toil, the parade and other festivities preliminary of to-day's formal dedication of the great World's Fair buildings took place yesterday. At an early hour in the morning enormous crowds of people began pouring into the town. The most striking feature of the decorations is undoubtedly the double electric arch spanning Michigan-avenue and Congress-street, and it excited universal admiration. General Miles, the Grand Marshal, was followed by the Mayor of Chicago and the Governors of States. Next marched twelve hundred Scotchmen with their bagpipes, members of the regiment called the Royal Scots, clad in the Royal Stuart plaid, who were greeted with loud cheers by the spectators all along the route of the procession, and the Sons of St. George. After these marched a large number of German, Polish, and Irish societies, and many others.

The hackney Jehus are reversing their prayers for the new Lord Mayor, who has, with a stroke of a pen, reduced their fares to one shinplaster per hour and half an s. p. for a single jaunt. The hackney fare tariff, however, is a dead letter, and the public invariably pay double or treble fare rather than expose themselves to the insolence of the drivers; and such insolence!

LATEST FROM MONTEVIDEO.

Saturday.

The Italian steamer Vincenzo Florio has arrived from Genoa.

The Fiscal has brought an action against the Sociedad General de Minas de Oro to recover $200,000 customs' duties due by the Company.

The 2nd of the line which under the command of Colonel Galarza, was stationed in Colonia as Sanitary cordon to prevent all communication with the Martin Garcia Lazzaretto has been ordered to Mercedes.

The steamer Wexford, from Newport, passed this evening en route for Buenos Ayres.

The arrival is announced of Mr. Manuel Floria no Correa de Brito, a Rio Janeiro merchant, who has come here as representative of the Pastoril Brazileira. This important concern owns 6 frigorific steamers destined to carry meat from the Plate to Rio Janeiro.

The Special Legislative Committee have drawn up a bill for electoral reform, which will be shortly laid before the Chambers.

There is no truth in the report that the Health Board were going to send a special delegate to B. Ayres to arrange the pending conflict. The H. B. think that the difference may be settled without the necessity of taking such a step.

Minister Casimiro Garcia and large party of high army officers left this morning in special train for Rivera. Several Brazilian refugees left in the same train.

The police this morning boarded the Venus and arrested a woman charged with having stolen lot of jewellery.

The American gunboat Yantic left to-day for B. Ayres.

The sudden and marked rise of the Consolidated Debt in London has had a favourable effect on the spirits of the market here. We think, however, it may be attributed less to any revival of Uruguayan credit than to the taking over of a large part of the Baring holding by a powerful syndicate formed amongst the Baring guarantors, and which will prevent the stock being thrown on the market in any large quantities for some time to come. In other words, it means the indefinite postponement of that unloading operation which it was hoped to bring about by the confiscation scheme. At the same time, it is quite probable that the punctual payment of interest for the worst quarter of the year, when half the world was afraid of fresh default, may have assisted the recovery.

The Budget is once more the topic of the day. Even the official organ the Nacion has taken up the cry and expatiates on the necessity of losing no further time in discussing and reforming the Budget. It is said that the Budget Committee has at last buckled seriously to its work and its report may be expected before long. It is added that the President himself is urging them on, and has openly expressed his displeasure that the Chamber of Representatives should have postponed the discussion of its House Estimates until the General Budget had been passed. All this sounds hopeful enough, but—why was not this done two years ago?

The Siglo commenting on the Budget question, points out that everyone is finally disuillusioned as to hopes of other resources and is convidced of the necessity of strict economy (it has taken a long time to reach this conviction) but the difficulty is to begin. The task is such a novel one for our legislators, still more when it is bound to affect them directly or indirectly.

Rumours of a coming Message still fill the air, but are no more definite than before. We shall know all about it—when we see it.

A telegram for London announces that Her Majesty's Government has resolved to grant a reward to the crew of the tug "La Plata" for the gallant rescue of the shipwrecked crew of the "Kaffir Chief," the wreck of which took place on the south coast of Montevideo, close to the British Hospital, on the morning of September 20 last, under circumtances recorded by us at the time.

This adds another to the many honorable recognitions already received by Lussich Brothers and their courageous crews for their valiant efforts in the saving of lives from shipwreck.—Montevideo Times.

ARGENTINE LOANS.

THE BATEMAN LEGACY.

The following appears in the city article of the Times of Oct. 18th:—

"It has recently been suggested more than once that the hypothecation of the Argentine Customs dues to the service of the Argentine loan of 1886 is not absolute, and that it is the defunct Argentine National Bank and not the holders of the bonds of this loan to whom the Customs have been pledged. This idea seems to have arisen from an observation made eight or nine months ago by the late Finance Minister in a report on possible economies in the administration of the country. This gentleman had been a clerk in the Argentine Treasury, and became Finance Minister merely because after Señor Lopez resigned the post it was found impossible to induce any person of political weight to take it, in view of the early surrender of office by Dr. Pellegrini's Government. Though, no doubt, a man of some ability, Señor Hansen's views are not, under the circumstances, of importance, especially as they are directly contradicted by the express stipulations of the bond, the material parts of which we subjoin:

Article 3.—The service of this loan shall be provided by the general revenues of the country, the Customs-house receipts remaining specially appropriated to the necessary extent for the annual service. The executive power is authorized to arrange with the National Bank for the service of the present loan.....

The National Bank at Buenos Ayres, charged with the collection of all the revenues of the nation, and especially of the receipts of the Customs appropriated to guaranteeing the loan, will remit at the end of each month at the rate of 1-12th of the total annuity, in the name and account of the National Government, to the Banque de Paris et des Pays Bas at Paris, designated for this purpose by the other contractors, the necessary sum in pounds sterling for the service of the loan, the total amount payable being always in the hands of this bank one month at least before the half-yearly maturity.

It will be observed that though the bank is intrusted with the service of the loan it is as the agent of the Government, that it acts, and that the hypothecation, or special appropriation, of the Customs receipts is not made to the National Bank, as is suggested, but to the bondholders.

The subjoined circular has been addressed to the shareholders in the Buenos Ayres Water Supply Drainage Company (Limited) by the liquidators, who have convened a meeting for the consideration of the scheme proposed for to-morrow weeek. October 25:—

Gresham-house, Old Broad-street,
15th October.

You will doubtless recollect that by the terms of the deed of rescission, under which this company's concession and property were to be surrendered to the Argentine Government, the company remained responsible to the Argentine Government, for the completion within a limited time of the waterworks and drainage system, as defined in the original concession, and that, contemporaneously with the approval by the shareholders of the deed of recission, a contract was approved, whereby Messrs. S. B. Hale and Co. undertook to fulfil the engagements of the company towards the Government in this respect, in consideration of a certain number of the new bonds.

Since the commencement of the liquidation, very considerable progress has been made towards completion, but several very serious difficulties have arisen both between the company and the Government, and between the company and its contractors, and the liquidators cannot disguise from themselves that should they endeavour to define, maintain, and enforce the strict rights of the company, the assets of the company would be exposed to the risk of very serious diminution.

The liquidators being of opinion that it would be to the interests of all concerned to make some sacrifice if the company and its assets could be released from all further responsibility and liability, and the new bonds delivered in accordance with the deed of recission, have at last reason to believe that if armed with the requisite authority, an arrangement of this character may be made. They have received from Messrs. Baring Brothers and Co. a letter of which the following is a copy:—

"8, Bishopsgate-street
Oct. 14.

"To the Liquidators of the Buenos "Ayres Water Supply and Drain- "Company (Limited).

"Gentlemen,—We understand that it is proposed that the preference shareholders of the Buenos Ayres Water Supply and Drainage Company (Limited) should pass a resolution agreeing, for the purposes of enabling the liquidators to arrange for the discharge of the company from all further liability under the rescission contract, to give up the funding bonds of the Argentine Government (representing the two instalments of interest due in January and July on the bonds which are to be given by the Argentine Government as purchase price under the rescission contract), with all coupons payable subsequently to October 1, 1892, provided we can arrange that out of the first bonds which the liquidators may receive from the Government £3,000,000 be distributed amongst the preference shareholders, and that such distribution be made within four months from the date of the meeting. We will make arrangements which will insure that if the funding bonds above referred to are employed for that purpose such distribution shall be made.

"We are, Gentlemen, yours obediently,

"Baring Brothers & Co.

Having regard to all the surrounding circumstances, the liquidators recommend the preference shareholders to authorize the surrender of the funding bonds upon the terms of the foregoing letter. They have accordingly convened a meeting of the preference shareholders according to the annexed notice, and, in case you are not able to attend, I enclose a form of proxy in favor of the liquidators, who will attend to any special directions that you may give, but who otherwise will treat the proxy as a discretionary authority to them.

THE ARGENTINE SWITZERLAND.

A SUMMER HOLIDAY OVER THE CORDOBA NORTH WESTERN RAILWAY.

(Ferro-Carril Cordoba y Nor-Oeste.)

V.

In our last section we had arrived at the second "centre" and at present, by far, the largest, i. e. Cosquin. This rising mountain village (in the States it would be called a city) may safely be said to have been the "pioneer" holiday resort for the summer months, being the only known residential spot in the Sierras before last summer, when Alta Gracia was made known to the British colony and others in this country by a series of articles in "THE STANDARD."

As the train stops at the Cosquin station we at once see that it is far more advanced than any place we have hitherto passed, as here the platform is crowded with "cocheros" and "peones" who beset you before you even reach the platform. The station building is a compact building with broad verandah, platform, front and back—across the rails on the left is seen the railway "galpon," a large, lofty, white coloured shed, which has been converted into a refreshment and breakfast room, and is most ably conducted by Don Antonio Borroni, who gives you a very good breakfast for $1.50. The "galpon" is now in appearance the same as a large sized dining-room with a bar in one corner, where whiskey, cocktails and all other drinks can be obtained. For passengers who are going "through" to places beyond Cosquin, half an hour's stop is given, and the "cantina" of Don Antonio Borroni is a great benefit, as the hotels being at a distance of several squares, little time would be left for breakfast.

Before describing the scenery and "paseos" of Cosquin, it will be as well to first mention everything about the accommodation to be obtained, as a visitor to "parts unknown" first requires to be comfortably housed before he commences to enjoy the pleasures of a summer holiday. The great advantage that Cosquin possesses over any other place in the Cordoba mountains (always excepting Capilla del Monte, of which more anon) is its excellent accommodation, far superior to what it was last summer, in fact any one who visited Cosquin last summer and was not pleased with the hotel accommodation must not imagine it is the same now. This season there will be three hotels and several ordinary restaurants. First and foremost comes the Hotel Cosquin, owned and founded by Don Silenio Cordoba; this is an excellent house, double the size that it was last season, and entirely renovated and improved. It now possesses accommodation for over 60 persons, having also a handsome and large dining-room, with two billiard-rooms adjoining, one with the usual American billiards and the other, boon of boons, an English table; also the hotel possesses good bath-rooms, lavatories, stables and all the necessary conveniences, and, what is most desirable in the eyes of English people, everything is scrupulously clean. A fixed charge is made of $5 a day, which includes an excellent table wine "ad libitum," and no extras. Cow, goat, mare and ass's milk always kept on the premises and can be obtained at all hours of the day, as well as fowl, duck, turkey and pigeons' eggs. To any lady and gentleman (with or without family) who do not mind a little extra expense Don Silenio offers a magnificent sala and bedroom, divided by folding partition, handsomely furnished, and possessing the splendid dimensions of 45 feet 6 in. long by 20 feet wide; this is let with pension, complete for lady and gentleman, at $14 per day for the two. An excellent supply of coaches and horses is kept in the hotel stables; a horse per day (with saddle and bridle) $3, without saddle and bridle $2. Per hour with saddle etc. $1; without, 50 cents. Carriages (with coachman), per hour $2, for the day $20. In fact, in every sense of the word the hotel of Don Silenio Cordoba can be thoroughly recommended, and being a wealthy man he spares no expense to make his guests feel thoroughly at home, always seeing that his waiters and servants are strictly polite and attentive and that every want is supplied; also he keeps an excellent cellar of every wine mostly used in this country, as well as Buchanan and other whiskeys. The cooking is now excellent, a first rate French "chef" having just arrived from Buenos Ayres by special arrangement. Having now described the "crack" hotel for those who require the best accommodation it is necessary to describe the next best hotel and which is a marvel for the prices charged.

EDITOR'S TABLE.

The March of the man of Harlem—we mean of Alem—will be the event of today. There won't even be a hat crushed, as they are all determined to be as orderly and peaceful as Quakers.

There was a sickly last-moment attempt at festivity in La Plata yesterday, to celebrate the founding of that burst-up place. The opera company gave a gala performance; and this was the best of the day's doings. By the way, this opera company enjoys a subvention from the precious Municipality which leaves its starving employees, even to the "vasureros," unpaid.

The weather was so fine yesterday that it was responsible for a no-quorum encore in the National Senate.

A small plot of ground was sold in Pueblo Rivadavia for 600 Columbus Centenary postage stamps; yesterday and the "escribano" was also paid in the same money.

Mr. Theodor Schumann, Secretary and Treasurer of the Niederlein Expedition to the Chaco and Misiones, arrived back to-day with six other members of the party after four months' exploration during which they reached the famous falls of Iguazú, the most imposing in the world. Mr. Niederlein, Chief in the Expedition, remained at Posadas, with the small steamer of the expedition, to complete and classify the valuable collections gathered during the expedition. Mr. Theodor Schumann acted as our Correspondent in the Expedition and we shall have much pleasure in publishing his impressions of Misiones and the Iguazú falls. All the members of the expedition enjoyed good health, and no mishap occurred to mar the object and success of the expedition.

We are sincerely glad to learn that our esteemed colleague Mr. Michael Dinneen, Editor in chief of the Southern Cross, is much better and fast recovering from his recent attack of bronchitis.

A healthy subscriber who hates the sight of a Sawbones has fished up for us the following very funny story; and we have given him a "carte blanche" commission to hunt up more of the same kind:—"Gentlemen,' said a doctor to a group of students gathered round the bed of a patient at Beaujon Hospital, 'we are here in presence of a case of enormous enlargement of the lungs, and I am not surprised to learn that the patient was a member of a brass band.' 'My friend,' continued the doctor, addressing the sick man, 'you were a member of the brass band?' 'Yes, doctor.' 'Now tell these gentlemen what instrument you played.' 'I beat the big drum,' responded the patient."

Sportsmen will have an enjoyable day at Palermo to-day. The programme is well filled up and most of the horses are certain to sport silk. Our selections are—

Premio Santa Fé—Melpomenes or Corresponsal.
" Corrientes—Cabula or Patria.
" Capital—Athos or Ituzaingo.
" Mendoza—Apolo or Salaam.
" San Luis—Stud Capt. Lopez or Acacia.
" Jujuy—Stud Capt. Lopez or Estoque.
" Catamarca—Phœbus.

Mr. Haimes, the justly popular Secretary of the Tomba Company, ought to be satisfied with his splendid benefit on Friday night at the San Martin Theatre. He deserved it. The presents from his wide circle of friends were numerous and costly.

The B.A.CC. thrashed the Rio men at cricket yesterday. So we expected.

Hurrah! We throw our best hat into the air. The new pumps at the Recoleta will begin to work in a fortnight. Yesterday half the city was without water at 6 p.m., the hour for washing hands and anti-prandial cocktailing.

The B. A. A. D. Club performance of "Ours" is now very close at hand and we would advise our friends to book their places early during this week. Many boxes have already been taken in advance, but position cannot be secured until to-morrow morning when tickets are for sale from 9.30 a.m. onwards at Mr. Geo. Mackern's, Calle San Martin 125. Arrangements are being made for special trains and trams in all directions after the performance. Now we must urge upon our friends to remember that a full house and plenty of enthusiasm will ensure enthusiastic artistic display and full coffers for the "Boys' Orphanage." The Opera house is a large space to fill up, but we hope to see it really crammed on the night of Monday 28th inst. We must bear in mind, however, that this can only be accomplished by unanimous action on the part of our British community and English speaking friends. The acting members have spent much time and trouble in a good cause; let us support them to the best of our ability.

Half the ladies in town are trying to coax Don Felix Pico to tell them the name of the buyer of the Progreso Club, a spot that has so many cherished recollections for the fair petitioners. Don Felix, who is the doyen of the real estate brokers "gremio," has not yet acceded to the ladies' request. The veteran broker always has a hand in famous purchases and sales. He bought the site of the present STANDARD office for us in 1885, and shortly after offered a million dollars for one league of San Blas; but the offer was refused, being in paper, not gold.

No wonder there are daring pirates at the Boca when the authorities are so sound asleep. It appears that there is an armed-to-the-teeth band of desperadoes quartered on the island that divides the Arroyo Maciel and the Riachuelo, and their mode of warfare is to creep silently, under cover of night, in canoes and boats, to the sides of vessels, seize and tie the man on watch before he can shout or defend himself, then pitch everything they can find that is portable and saleable into the boats, and row away. It is really incomprehensible that this band of ruffians can carry on such depredations in the emporium of South America, and when a regiment of the line could capture or kill the whole gang in half an hour. It is one of those things which our friends in Europe are utterly unable to understand.

No matter how loose an engagement ring may be, the diamond never slips around on the inside of a lady's finger.

If the new Lord Mayor could start a watering-cart service near Plaza Once he would earn the gratitude of Western suburb daily-bread slaves. Yesterday morning on the railway side of that Plaza there were dust-squalls that blinded passengers in open tram-cars.

Mrs. Mary Alvarez is a foolish lady who is now crying her eyes out because she had never heard of the "legado del tio" swindle till it was played on her to the tune of 5000 shinplasters on Friday last.

A step in the right direction has been taken at the Zarzuela Theatre, where the performance is never over till a monstrously late hour. O'Kill now performs after the first play, so that people may hear him and go home to bed at a decent hour.

The La Plata Deputies have more sense than Congress, and do not consider it possible to empty the river Plate with a teaspoon. On Friday they very properly sent to the "carnero" the Locust Extinction Bill making it obligatory on all inhabitants of the province to undertake the Will-o-the Wisp task of exterminating the Locusts. The Deputies also refused to offer money for Locusts' eggs. The fuss about the Locusts seems to be greatly exaggerated everywhere, no doubt with the landable object of getting a share of the half million dollars so recklessly voted by Congress for a purpose that the combined armies of the world would be unable to achieve.

What's the meaning of this? We read that the Asistencia Publica wants a "medico de muertos," a Dead Men's doctor! Perhaps if half the dead men had had no doctor they would n't be dead.

The latest way of advertizing is that adopted by the "La Francia Argentina" in Calle Cangallo, of throwing nice fans into carriages as they drive through the streets. It is a capital idea.

The claim to knowledge where knowledge does not exist is often a comical spectacle. There was in former days, a matron of Winchester School who had charge of the boys' linen and was quite famous for affecting a sort of general omniscience. When the lad who became Dean Hook was there, he was fond of putting odd queries to the old lady for the sake of her amusing fence with them. On one occasion he gave the challenge with an air of mock gravity. "Pray, madam, what is your opinion of Charles XII. of Sweden?" "Well, Mr. Hook," was the answer, "I haven't been able to read the papers lately, and, of course, I am not personally acquainted with him."

The striking cobblers hold a meeting to-day at the Salon La France. Last night the flyingfeet of the Anglo-American Society kept the floor of the same hall warm, with a most enjoyable hop.

Although the Locusts now in the Plate are not so voracious as their grandfathers, for reasons which only Mr. Reade or Mr. Pennington could explain, they are quite as numerous as their ancestors. At Arrecifes on Friday they stopped the night train between Sarmiento and Duggan Stations, and it had to return to the latter station to have half the waggons detached. The river Arrecifes has run dry, and the local mill and the electric light have come to a stand. We suppose the Locusts drank up the river.

There will be a cricket match to-day at Palermo between the B.A.C.C. and Lomas A.C. Play will commence on the arrival of the 10.05 train from Central. The Lomas Club will be represented by the following members:—P. Bridger, R. Anderson, H Anderson, Geo. Anderson, A Anderson, H Cornwall, P Rath, C A Tabor, J F Barnes, J D F H Jacobs.

On Saturday, 26th inst., at 2.30 p.m., a matinée will be given in the Zarzuela Theatre in aid of the English Literary Society's Building Fund. Mr. O'Kill, the famous ventriloquist, has kindly offered his services. The programme will include a zarzuela by the company at the theatre and a number of pieces by English amateurs, and will conclude with an entertainment in English specially arranged by Mr. O'Kill for this occasion only. The prices will be those customary in the Zarzuela Theatre. All particulars will be advertized in a day or two.

Yesterday was a Christmas Roast Beef (to be) day at the Docks, as Mr Nash was engaged in shipping a magnificent lot of fat steers to London, and the prime condition of the animals excited general admiration.

Another bit of culinary news is that a quantity of the primest haggis in Sanchiehall Street, Glasgow, is on the way out for the Saint Andrew's banquet on the 30th inst. Last year the haggis was made in the Cafe de Paris; and, although Sempé has some of the best cooks in the city, they tore their hair out in despair at having to concoct such a "plat effroyable;" and the result was that they nearly poisoned all our Scotch subscribers round the jovial board, and one of our staff who had the honour of being present.

A rather old lady, Doña Alejandra Valleroso, has died in the Poor Asylum at Lujan, aged 115 years. We are unable to say whether she was black or white, probably a little of both.

Catamarca and Tucuman are both thinking of a little revolutionary recreation, but don't like to give Dr. Costa too much work at a time.

He worked off a smile of supreme content
As he dropped in his easy chair,
A laugh from his classical lips he sent

ON 'CHANGE.
Saturday, November 19th 1892.
Gold Premium.
FIRST RING..... 178 50%
SECOND RING..... 179.00%

The gold market opened this morning under last night's bearish impression and the fall in the premium continued till 175.50% was touched, when a slight reaction put up prices again. This being Saturday, the speculation was very active, over 14 million dollars changing hands. Operations for cash embraced four hundred thousand dollars; the premium opened at 178%, fell to 175.50%, rose again to 178%, fell back to 176.50%, and closed at 178.50%. Over half a million was sold for the end of the month; the premium opened at 174%,

10,000,000 of said bonds monthly. The notes paid for same to be burnt then and there. Third, the new bank to have the sole right of emission throughout the nation, for 50 years. To be free of all taxation of every name and description. To have fiscal right for the collection of its debts, and the bank for these rights and privileges pays the interest and amortization on the 4½% bonds issued for the conversion of the currency. "Voilà tout." All the rest are details. Everyone who knows anything of the market will at once see the admirable feasibility of the scheme. The new bank will always have to hold a specie reserve of ⅓ of its issue.

The judicial auction sale of the chairs, tables, ink-botiles, etc., of the La Plata Bolsa, which took place yesterday is the merited drop scene on a concern that it would have been far better for La Plata and for Buenos Ayres had it never been born. For the last two years it may be said to have been practically shut up, and nobody ever entered it, save to see the telegram from Buenos Ayres with the price of gold. No commercial transactions of any description were carried on in the place. Speculation in La Plata stocks was completely annihilated, and nobody could understand for what the unfortunate concern was kept open, or who paid the rent. At the judicial liquidating auction which we now report many of the bidders were almost reduced to tears at the sight of the quotations of La Plata stocks, which, through the neglect or oversight of the officials, were allowed to subsist on the black-board. These unhappy figures brought back to memory those wretched, rascally stocks which, incredible to say, were at one time at 100 premium and to-day are not worth the paper they are printed on hundreds and we may say thousands of people in Buenos Ayres still hold those Fomento Territorial, Territorial La Plata and Credito Popular stocks in the vain hope that the day may yet come when they will be worth something, but 'tis all but a dream at the best, and the unfortunate La Plata stock brokers who went down in the ruck are to-day scattered far and wide throughout the country. You meet them ploughing up the virgin lands of Trenquelauquen, cutting leña in the islands, shearing in Patagonia and pulperos on the Colorado. Many of the bidders who walked the hall remembered the days when the Territorial shares were bought up by telegraphic orders sent by some of the strongest and best houses of Buenos Ayres. It was at one time indeed hard to keep up the supply of the stock, so strong and continued was the demand. "Eheu prisca fides!" The auctioneer who remembered all these stocks so linked together, that he had seen around him fall like leaves in wintry weather, was completely overcome by his feelings and, with handkerchief to his eyes, put up the d—d old territorial black board whose figures had ruined so many thousands. Not a bid; not an offer. The last quotations of the Territorial were on the board, and this was too much for the crowd. The auctioneer called for a sponge to wipe them out, but time had too firmly indented them; he rubbed and rubbed and with Lady Macbeth exclaimed, "out damned spot, out I say." One, two, many years must elapse before another Bolsa in La Plata will be again started, and another generation must spring up before the bitter annals of this sold-out establishment will be forgotten.

The following is a list of the bids for the amortization of National cedulas accepted by the bank:—

Series A 6,000 at 99.90; do B 10,000 at 99; 11,500 at 97.50, 30,000 at 99.60; 25,000 at 98.90, 25,000 at 98.30, 8,500 at 99.75; do C 6,000 at 93, 10,000 at 94.20, 5,000 at 94.50, 50,000 at 96.75; do D 25,000 at 95.50, 28,000 at 96.30; do E 5,500 at 90.87½, 5,000 at 96.96, 10,000 at 97.30.

The highest triumph of science is now employed for the very lowest and rudest branch of trade. The old "saladero" of Castellanos & Co., where cattle are killed at the Cerro Montevideo by the thousand, the same as in the days of Oribe and Rosas, is now lighted up with the electric light, and the killing is carried on in the dead of night in the broad glare of the end of century lights—could any thing be more striking? We hope the new electric jerked beef will sell better, and electrify the niggers in Cuba who maintain life on this prehistoric food. Montevideo is indeed the land of anomalies. No "curso forzoso" yet a tremendous crisis. No scientific utilization of beef yet old "saladeros" working in the full blaze of the 19th century light. Streets deserted, trado dead, business at a dead lock, and yet the piles of jerked beef made up at the Cerro under the blaze of an electric moon. Verily there is much moonshine in Montevidean affairs.

Telegrams received to-day from Mendoza give an account of a serious accident which occurred on Thursday night on the railway between Alto Pencoso and Dessaguadero. The most alarming reports reached Mendoza, and Mr. Villalonga, the manager, sent a special train at 5 o'clock yesterday morning to the scene of the accident. Mr. Villalonga himself formed part of the relief-party. The particulars of the accident are as follow:—On Wednesday heavy showers of rain fell, injuring and weakening the high earthworks in the Alto Pencoso district. Near km. 428, about 80 yards of earthworks were carried away, and this was the cause of the accident. The combination train which left Buenos Ayres on Wednesday came along at its ordinary speed and fell into the gap, at the bottom of which there was a torrent nearly 20 feet deep. The locomotive, tender, and five empty waggons fell into the waters, and this circumstance prevented the disaster from being greater. The fireman, Horton, was killed outright, and the driver, Thompson, and the postman, Valentini, were injured, though not seriously. The passengers escaped with a fright. Horton was crushed to death in the engine. The torrent carried the debris of the waggons three miles away. The inundations have injured the earthworks in many other parts of the line.

Telegrams from La Paz, Bolivia, report a great fire at Sorata. No less than 15 blocks were burned to the ground in three hours. The origin of the conflagration was a fire in a kitchen built against the wall of the church. Losses 200.000 Bolivianos. Great distress has been caused by this disaster

Advices from Rosario state that the local grain exporters held a meeting at which the following resolutions were passed:—(1) Not to purchase grain unless the grain-tax be paid by the seller. (2). Not to purchase grain until the legality of the tax be decided by the Supreme Court.

The passenger-night train from B. Ayres arrived at Arrecifes yesterday morning 2½ hours behind time. The delay was caused by billions of locusts on the line. Between Duggan and Sarmiento stations the insects were so thick that the train could with the greatest difficulty plough through them. The locusts have laid their eggs all through the partido of Arrecifes. At the same time the Rio Arrecifes has fallen so low that the flour-mill has been brought to a stand-still. The river was never so low before.

The sale of the Club Progreso building by Messrs. Bullrich and Co. was much talked of on 'Change. It was generally said that Don Felix Pico bought it for Don Manuel Aguirre. Don Lysandro Billinghurst bid up to 506,000$ for a client. Brokers report real-estate improving, and more buyers offering for city properties.

Immediately after the first ring an auction was called to-day and the following stocks were sold:—

400 shares of the Colonizador Nacional at 19.50.

16 shares Hipodromo Nacional at 50.

Captain Read, of the steamer Hydarnes, was welcomed to-day. We all remember the services of the gallant captain when he was in command of the Auretta at Rosario during the July revolution in 1890.

Telegrams from Rio quote exchange on London at 13½d.

Messrs. John and Frederick Dumas have joined partnership to do brokerage business on 'Change.

The Camara Sindical has authorized Mr. Bravo to sell at auction after the first ring on the 25th inst. the following stocks:—

50 Scrip Caja de Descuentos
50 Do. Banco Constructor Oriental
100 Shares Paraguay Land Co.
35 Bonos of do. of 400£ each
25 Scrip Banco Comercial de La Plata
50 Scrip Constructora Lomas de Zamora.

Two thousand bags of Barletta wheat were sold yesterday in one lot at the Central Produce Market at 7.50$ ⅝. Flour was quoted at 1.50$ for zero quality and 1.15$ for special kinds.

Messrs. S. B. Hale and Co. have applied to the Government to change 1,193 shares of the National Bank for bonds of the Internal loan of 1892.

Mr Nash, the well-known breeder, has sold to Mr. Hugh Nelson 220 Durham steers at the rate of £10 per head on the estancia: each steer weighs 800 kilos on an average. These animals will be shipped to London for the Smithfield Market.

The wools of the Carmen estancia, say 120,000 kilos, from Arecifes, have been bought by Messrs. Sameza of San Nicolas at 5.60$ per 10 kilos on the estancia.

Ten leagues of land in the Paraguayan Chaco have been sold at the rate of 700$ ⅝ per league.

Mr. White's petition, in behalf of the Rosario Railway, for the opening of the Belgrano-Las Conchas Line from San Fernando to Km. 20, has been sent by the Government to the Board of Public Works, who will report next week.

The Procurator of the Treasury has endorsed the N. R. Board report urging the Government to annul Messrs. Woodgate and Co.'s concession for a railway from Venado Tuerto to La Carlota.

The N. R. Board have issued another report on the subject of the Pacific Railway guarantee Mercedes-Mercedes section (for half-year ended Sept. 30th ult. = £80,928). The N. R. Board state that arithmetically the account is correct, but they urge the Government not to pay the account until the Company certify that they have deposited to the order of the Treasury the percentage claimed by the State. The account, moreover, should bear the signature of the Intervention.

The gold market ruled very steady at the second ring. Eight hundred thousand dollars were sold, the premium closing at 179 ¾ for Monday, 178¾ % for end of the month, 177 ⅞ for end of December, and 175 ⅝ for end of January. Stocks and shares were quiet. Municipal Consols rose to 70.

The following is a summary of the business effected at the second ring to-day:—

"The rapid fall in the price of gold has had its effect on the London market, and Government Stocks show a marked improvement. The 1886 Loan has improved 1¼ point and the Funding Loan has risen 4. This stock is much cheaper than the 1886 and is in great demand.

"Banks are firm, and the week closes with a rise of 1 in London and River Plate.

"Rails are steady. Great Southerns and Ensenadas being the only ones that show any alteration, having risen 1 and 2¾ respectively. Given a good harvest, and large traffic returns, the value of all these stocks must increase."
